School Students Strike

Somewhere in the neighborhood of 100 students of the Strathmore Public and High Schools walked out of the school on Tuesday morning and again in the afternoon, demanding that the school go on the same time as the town is using.

This followed a petition signed by a large number of them on Monday, and presented to Mr. D. S. Brook, school board representative for this area.

On Tuesday many of the students carried placards reading: "We want Daylight Time." Their petition on Monday, however, was not so pointed; it asked only that the present confusion be ended by arranging that the town and the school be on the same time, whichever it might be.

It is understood that only two members of the Grade XII class were out on Tuesday... with exams coming up, they are apparently not missing classes on whichever time their sympathies, however, would seem to be with major student body.

While it seemed to have been moved initially by students from the town, it is understood that large numbers of the country students joined in the walk-out.

In support of their request, and also to show that they are not merely grandstanding, many of the students on strike appeared at the school on Wednesday morning at nine o'clock last time, and similarly at noon, thus signifying their willingness to abide by their cause.

While originally the school planned to go on Fast Time when the Town moved on it at Sunday midnight, the school board representative for this area ordered that it stay on Standard Time as a result of a petition circulated in Town on Saturday night, on which some two hundred people affixed their signatures, asking that Standard Time be adhered to in Strathmore, and forwarded to the School Board.

A check of the list revealed, however, that many of the signatures came from people who are not in any way affected, the Standard was informed.

Ilene Willson Queen Candidate

There was a good attendance at the May meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary held Monday evening. Mrs. Tess presiding.

It was decided to turn over all Tea money in future to some charitable cause.

Plans were made for the supper to be served May 23, at the dance of the baseball club.

Five new members were initiated. Business transacted. Included the decision to enter a candidate for Queen in the Canadian Travellers Contest at the Calgary Stampede. Miss Ilene Willson was unanimously chosen.

Mrs. Ian MacKenzie and Miss Frances Jones were appointed to arrange for sale of tickets, advertising, etc.

It was decided to invite Gleichen and Standard groups to join us in selling tickets for our candidate.

Other minor matters were arranged, following which, the business was adjourned, and a few rounds of Bingo and light refreshments served.

C.G.I.T. Banquet

Vases of lovely flowers, streamers in the C.G.I.T. colors on tables and festooned from pillar to pillar created a very attractive setting for the delightful banquet Tuesday evening, at the annual Mother and Daughter Banquet, given under the direction of the Leaders, Mrs. A. Polley, and Mrs. E. Gray, ably assisted by their girls, whose number is constantly growing. Places were laid for about eighty four.

Miss Audrey Thompson, president of the Sr. Group, was toast mistress, and Miss Jean Tew, president of the Intermediate group, assisted in the programme. Mrs. Polley leading in the group singing.

During a delicious banquet, various camp songs were heartily sung.

The following toasts were honored and ably supported: The Church, Virginia Bower, response Mrs. Hamilton. Continued on page 8.

LEGION FAVORS MEMORIAL ARENA

Testifying to the interest of the members, one of the largest turnouts for some time at a regular meeting of the Legion decided on Tuesday night that this group would lend all its support to the erection locally of a skating and curling arena as a memorial to those who have fallen and who have served in the wars of the empire.

This decision was arrived at following considerable discussion by those present. Mr. Keith Baldwin, treasurer of the Community Council's rink fund, was present at the meeting and gave a short talk, embodying most of the points in connection with the support desired of the Legion by the Community Council. He was asked several questions by the members before the matter came to the vote.

Baseball Club News

A very enjoyable baseball game was played on Sunday May 11, in Strathmore between Strathmore and Carseland, Strathmore being winners by a score of 8-4. This was chiefly due to some excellent pitching by Jack Crellin. By the type of ball witnessed on Sunday, we should have some very good games here this year.

Much work has been done at the ball park this spring and although not yet not completed, it could be noticed at the first game that there were considerable improvements over last year, in the way of protection for the cars and condition of the diamond. This work has been made possible by donations from the business men of Strathmore, totalling $180.00.

C.G.I.T. Affiliate-W.M.S.

An interesting service was conducted in United Church Sunday evening when the C.G.I.T. Group affiliated with the W.M.S.

Mrs. McMurray, President of the local W.M.S. with Mrs. Turner of Calgary with leaders Mrs. Polley and Mrs. E. Gray and assistants participated in the ceremony.

At the conclusion the girls were each presented with The World Service insignia badge indicating a certain standard attained. Following, Mrs. Forbes gave a most interesting address on the value of Missionary Endeavour. She gave vivid accounts of conditions in various countries she had visited and strongly emphasized the benefits derived from Missions.

Following the service a very pleasant social hour was enjoyed in the Manso, the W.M.S. being hostesses.

CHICK RECORD?

Friends of George (Trotsky) Davis, at the King Edward Hotel, are all registering the proper brand of amazement and admiration these days, and asking George for the secret of his success. George is raising a lovely flock of New Hampshire Nests in the back yard, and was started when the other day he found that, though they are only ten weeks old, the chicks have started laying. On one morning he found four eggs in the nests, which seems to constitute something of a record in the line.

The pullets haven't repeated their effort, however, and George is not sure whether they've gone off their feed, or whether they've seen the price of eggs recently... or whether he's having his leg pulled.

CANADIAN LEGION

Three new members were accepted into the Branch at the meeting: Mr. Henry Josephson of Nanaima, and Gordon Beattie and Mr. Wilfred Longson, both of Kathryn.

It was announced that a determined effort was being made to finish up the work on the grounds on Sunday, May 18, and that therefore a bee would be held starting at 10 o'clock, in order to leave members time to attend the baseball game in the afternoon. 'C. E. Way' who is in charge of the grounds committee, explained that he had work in various sections for at least thirty members, and hoped that more would be present at 10 a.m.

Two members recently arrived home from University, Ray Bower, and Walter Bolesavain, were welcomed to the meeting again.

A resolution was forwarded to Provincial Command asking that the Federal Government implement such legislation as is necessary to make the matter of times at least a provincial matter and preferably a federal matter, not under the control of local governments.

Choral Concert At Carseland

An outstanding musical program by the Strathmore Musical Club and a group of Strathmore H. S. girls, was presented in the hall Friday night, under the auspices of the Carseland Ladies' Aid. Numbers, which ranged from humor in the men's quartette to the inspiration of the "Hallelujah Chorus," were enthusiastically received by the audience.

The 11 S. girls rendered three selections in very pleasing tones. Miss J. Garrett and Mr. G. Patrick are to be complimented for accepting leading roles in the absence of Miss Georgia and Mr. Blaine Chapman. Mrs. R. Barlow extended a vote of thanks and appreciation to the director, Mr. D. Kennedy and the other artists for the fine performance.

Confirmation Service At St. Michaels

Sunday May 4 the Rite of Confirmation was celebrated at St. Michaels Church, when Rt. Rev. J. R. Rags, Bishop of Calgary, officiated, assisted by the rector Rev. Ford.

Receiving the rite of Confirmation were Rowe Harvey, Robert Sinclair, Ellen Bennett, Beverly Henderson, Peggy Henderson, Doreen Isard, Ethel Mungleton, Margaret Sinclair, and Jean Tew.

Bishop Rags gave a very impressive address, basing his remarks on the meaning of the Four Points of the Cross.

Following the Service the Candidates with their parents and a few friends enjoyed a happy social hour, guests of Rev and Mrs. Ford in the rectory.

'Beaver' Wins Cane

A century-old tradition was re-enacted in the Port of Montreal when a gold-headed cane was presented to Capt. J. Blaise Smith, C.B.E., skipper of the Canadian Pacific Steamships cargo-passenger liner Beaverburn, for being the first to bring a deep-sea ship into Canada's greatest port this year. Capt. Smith, a veteran of both world wars, docked his vessel a scant hour ahead of his nearest rival, claiming one of the closest races of sev-

Taking The Long View

In addition to immediate cash advantages from the production of barley — and they are well worth considering — three other reasons why barley should be included in the cropping program are given by J. E. Birdsall, Supervisor of Crop Improvement. The problem of weed control is important. Not only will barley produce a profitable crop on land that is too weedy for wheat production, but with proper management it will bring the weeds under control at the same time. Mr. Birdsall points out that the toll taken by weeds is far greater than generally realized. Any crop or farm practice that will help in weed control deserves careful consideration. Then there is the export ban market. If Canada is to retain a fair share of that market abundant feed will be necessary. For hog feeding no other crop is as satisfactory as barley.

Barley enters into planning to avoid possible large wheat surpluses. Every opportunity should be taken to make full use of other crops in order to keep away from a one crop economy. One of the most important and satisfactory alternative crops to wheat is barley.

If you are having difficulty in obtaining seed barley see your District Agriculturist or Municipal Supervisor. They can tell you where you can obtain seed and will be interested in seeing that you get the very best obtainable.

Art Lowe and Herb Harmer met on the street the other day, and just in passing, Art said to Herb: "Nice these days with spring all around, eh, Herb?"

"Eh-h-h?" asked Herb. "Nice to have spring in the air," said Art, more loudly. "What's that?" again asked Herb. "I said, Spring in the air!" fairly thundered Art.

"Why should I?" demanded Herb.

Cliff Willis tells this story on his new laundry: "The other day a customer who had been having troubles with shrinking of his shirts found a railroad spike and sent it in to Cliff with this tag on it: 'Try and shrink this.' So Cliff returned his laundry, and with it a small carpet tack, with a tag reading: 'We did.'"

"Ted," demanded the little woman, holding up a handful of red, white and blue disks to the view of her hollow-eyed spouse, "are these poker ships that I found in your pocket?"

"Why, Mary," was Slater's apologetic reply, "I suppose they are. You see I..."

"We crashdived and watched the gauges with anxious eyes. Depth charges were popping too close for comfort. We expected the lights to go at any moment. Suddenly, the sub's cook rushed into the control room:

"Be alay now," replied his second.

"I'll put that right."

Home & Workshop for Blind

Plans for the construction of the Calgary home and workshop for blind persons are being prepared and the building will be started as soon as satisfactory materials are in adequate supply, Fred Stapels, chairman of the Central and Southern Alberta division of the Canadian National Institute for the Blind, said at the annual meeting this week in the Board of Trade rooms.

The city turned over, without charge a piece of land on 10th St. N. W. between 2nd Ave. and Gladstone Rd. Funds have been collected through donations from Southern Alberta residents, a grant from the provincial government and a portion of the Community Chest returns for the building which will contain rooms for blind persons, a workshop dining and sitting rooms, and recreational rooms.

THIS SITE is located in a desirable part of the city about one mile from the city centre and close to Riley Park," Mr. Stapels said. The board has approved the divisional plan of stabilized financing and further approval is needed by Community Chests the provincial government and municipalities. It is planned to obtain 50 per cent of the costs from provincial and municipal grants and 50 per cent from Community Chests and individual subscriptions.

SALES of blindcraft at the Stampede and at Christmas had been an outstanding success, and two concession stands had been opened in the public building and in the Col. Becher hospital.

NIGHTINGALE

By Mrs. F. H.

The Nightingale Woman's Institute held their regular meeting at the hall last Friday. The ladies set up their quilt and worked steadily, while the business was conducted. Only one Mama's little darling appeared and many nickle fines went into the funds. It was decided to hold a dance in the near future and the matter was turned over to the social committee. Mrs. Lucile McLean resigned and Mrs. F. H. Harrison was elected Secretary for the balance of the year. The ladies adjourned early in order to enjoy the social hour in honor of Mrs. Wm. Otto, who expects to leave soon for a visit to the U.S. She was presented with a fine piece of linen on which all members had embroidered their autographs. She expressed her thanks for the thoughtful gift and the very special lunch provided by the members. There were twenty two members present and Mrs. H. Way of Calgary, was a welcome visitor.

Miss Grace Way spent the weekend with her parents in Calgary.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Taylor and daughters of Strathmore were Sunday visitors with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. Thurston.

Ted Joel was a weekend visitor to Calgary. There are wonderful attractions in that city.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Fries of Dalmend visited with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Kinney, last Sunday.

Little Irene Kinney is home once more after another few days in the General Hospital, in Calgary.

Dr. and Mrs. A. A. Downey and children, Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Harrison of Calgary, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Hildahl and children of Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Bragg and family of Standard and Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Miller of Rockyford came to join the rest of the family at a reunion last Sunday, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Harrison. It was a very pleasant occasion for all.

There was quite a crowd at the ball game on the sports grounds last Sunday, when Rockyford defeated our boys by a large margin. Better luck next time boys.

Keep in mind the dance at the hall June 6, 1947.

FARMERS LOSE RIGHTS TO SHOOT ON OWN LANDS

According to the press reports the C.C.F. government of the Province of Saskatchewan is introducing a bill to amend the Game and Fisheries Act, which in certain circumstances will prevent a farmer from hunting or fishing on his own land. The effect of the legislation appears to be that in case a farmer puts up signs, "No Shooting or Fishing" in property automatically becomes designated a game sanctuary which no one, including himself can hunt or fish without permission of the government bureaucracy.

The excuse given for the proposed legislation is that the erection of such signs opens the way for the owner of the property to lease the game privileges to commercial interests and that sort of private enterprise comes under the socialist taboo. If the case is as stated it is certainly a novel way of circumscribing individual liberties. To prevent wild ducks stripping whole fields of wheat, farmers better not put up these signs.

Two travellers in Ireland, returning home late one night, lost their way. Said one, "We must be in a cemetery. Here's a gravestone."

"Whose is it?" asked the other. The more sober of the two, having struck a match, said, "I don't know, but he seems to have lived to a ripe old age—175."

"Can you read the name?" asked his companion. Another match having been lit—"I don't know him. Some fellow called 'Miles from Dublin'."

Two old bachelors sat talking. Their talk drifted from politics and finally got around to cooking. Said one: "I got one of them cookery books once, but I never could do nothing with it."

"Too much fancy work in it, eh?" "You said so. Every one of them recipes began the same way — 'Take a clean dish' — and that settled me."

Mountains And Molehills

We've been laughing rather feebly for over a week now, and it seems we've got lots of company, from personal observation.

Our friends are those who seem to agree with us that this business about standard time and fast time isn't worth all of the confusion that's being caused by it.

Hardly an hour goes by but we get a fresh reason for laughing at some new ludicrous example of our ability to fret and worry over a small matter until it takes on gigantic proportions. The latest one was the circulation of two petitions in town, both dealing with the time question, and both signed in many cases by the same people.

Which says, in effect, that many people don't really care a rap; they're either taking the easy road, or striving to break friendly relations. And we're laughing at the illustration we noted yesterday of students joining the school strike whose parents were solidly behind the petition for Standard Time. It is to be noted that the students are not striking for Standard Time, or for Daylight Saving Time, but for conformity with the town, whichever it is.

Another incident we got a peek out of was the farmer who told a butcher recently that didn't seem to make much difference which time the shop operated on. He still had to wait half an hour for his meat.

We think we could make a page out of such illustrations, if we put them all together. It might be fun, at that. But on the serious side of the matter, we do feel that it's a shame feeling has to run so high over so trivial a matter. Travellers are accustomed to working on many times, and rarely get upset over the switching of their watches. And we feel that any inconvenience which may be caused by the time principles is not worth all the friction which is rising, and all the hasty words which are being said.

We've seen two instances at least of factions trying to pit the town against the country, which is a great pity. It's more, it's a shame. For whatever differences we may have, there is not sufficient difference between either a town home or a country home, or a town family and a country family, or a store-keeper on Main Street and a man with a thousand acres, to warrant pitting sides. It

Canada is short of barley as feed for live stock. More barley is necessary for the maintenance of Canadian live stock and the production of urgently needed live stock products. The Plebiscite

The electors of Strathmore have a protest coming over the way in which the plebiscite on Standard Time or Daylight Time is being handled by the Council, for many of them feel that this indication is only a mockery.

The ratepayers, including payers of poll tax, are voting. Why? This is not a money question, and should include the entire electorate. On all other questions, every member qualified for the voters' list can cast a ballot. Is the time question not one which is as simple as deciding who shall represent the Town?

There is no secret vote. The ballots have been mailed out, and are being mailed in. In some cases, they are coming in in one-cent, unsealed envelopes. It is rumored that one citizen, in the absence of the secretary undertook to satisfy his curiosity about the tendencies, by checking the ballots if he could count the ballots, he could also alter or destroy some. We're not suggesting he did, but it's not the type of voting customarily expected.

And there was no advertising the vote. It is conceivable that some citizens may not even have heard of it.

might be different if we lived in the Industrial East, or in some area organized for an especial situation, such as a mining centre; but we are not in either of these situations. We live next door to each other, and we shall continue to have to live next door to each other.

And it's rather awkward living next door to a neighbor you've put outside the door of your friendliness.

In this connection we feel that the strike of the students is also a shame. We attach most blame to the students themselves. It is our observation that they have handled themselves and their strike in a commendable manner, one which should show to the adult population the ability and the tempered wisdom inherent in this group of youth.

But we feel that it is possible in many instances the students are being used. Used to make of the school a lever through which to swing the time issue.

A wide cross section of the public would seem to indicate that very few people really care a whit for either time. They're willing to work on which ever comes along, but they, like the students, would like uniformity. We don't care which time people live by. But we think that the adult community should stop being childish, and display some of the more adult wisdom of their children.

Tuesday evening May 6, the H. and S. held their regular meeting when about 22 members were present. The matter of change of time was discussed and it was decided by vote to go on Daylight Saving Time in the schools. Mrs. H. Wilson, delegate to the H. and S. convention at Olds gave her report, which was much enjoyed. Mrs. A. Smart and Mrs. F. Taylor, were hostesses for the evening, serving a tasty lunch. The next meeting, June 3, will be the Annual meeting when election of officers will take place.

The W. I. held their regular meeting on Wednesday afternoon in the hall, with an attendance of 27 members and 2 visitors. Mrs. Geo. Whitney presided.

Mrs. Ed Snider, Constituency Conventor, was with us, after her recent illness, and was very glad to be back again. It was decided to send $5.00 to the Cancer Fund. Mrs. Blue gave her report on forming the girls club. It being "Mothers Day Program" the roll call was "quotations." The program committee put on two stunts and a quiz contest, which was much enjoyed by all, causing a good deal of laughter from everyone.

A tasty lunch was served by the hostesses, Mrs. Moe, Mrs. Winstrom, and Mrs. Negrich.

The track meet, held at the Forest Lawn School on Friday, proved quite successful. The day was perfect for sports, but not for Connie Wilson from Langdon who met with a painful accident to her ankle, while making a high jump. She was taken to Calgary for treatment, where the Doctor was at first afraid it was a break. However, it is a bad sprain, and Connie is hobbling about on crutches, and not missing any school.

Mr. A. Brander had medical treatment to his eye yesterday last week, when he had a piece of steel shaving pierce the eye-ball, and had to have it removed. He reports that it is much better but still very tender.

The children of the Junior room of the Langdon school entertained their mothers on Monday afternoon at a

The topic of the Lesson-Sermon in Christian Science churches on Sunday will be "Mortals and Immortals." Here are significant passages which will be read: "There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit." (Romans 8:1). "As mortals give up the delusion that there is more than one Mind, more than one God, man is God's likeness will appear, and this eternal man will include in that likeness no material element."

HUSSAR NOTES

by M. C. B.

On Tuesday afternoon, some ninety ladies gathered at the home of Mrs. Ray Schoelling, for a shower for Miss Nettie V. Letrandeur, who came down from Edmonton on Sunday for a week, visiting her mother, Mrs. V. P. LeGrandeur. There was a program consisting of a piano solo by Miss Lois Schoelling, a reading by Mrs. E. J. Bell, a vocal solo by Mrs. Karl Kauden, and a piano solo by Miss Joanne Illake. Each contributed an encore.

Mrs. Hans Buckenhardt played the marches for the bridal couple, young Kay Law, as the groom and her brother, Emery Law, as the bride, brought in the gifts in a beautifully decorated wagon. The gifts were numerous, useful, and decorative. In behalf of the committee, Mrs. H. A. Treend, presented Miss LeGrandeur with the beautiful flowers that had been used for decoration. Miss LeGrandeur made a fitting reply of thanks to all for their gifts. The committee were Mesdames Ray Schoelling, H. A. Treend, J. D. Moffat, T. Clark and R. B. Snyder. Miss Shirley Moulton and her mother, were thanked for decorating the wagon so beautifully. A delicious lunch was thoroughly enjoyed. Afterwards, snaps were taken of the crowd.

A lovely trousseau tea was held at the home of Mrs. Violet P. LeGrandeur on Thursday afternoon, in honor of her daughter, Miss Nettie V. LeGrandeur, whose marriage took place on the 11th. The house was beautifully decorated with white and gold flowers. Mesdames R. B. Snyder, H. A. Treend, T. Clark, L. M. Clark, and R. Schoelling poured the tea.

Many friends were in from the country as well as from the Village, and Mrs. Edward White, mother of the groom, was down from Edmonton for the occasion.

WHAT IS THE TIME?

It Is Time To Build a Memorial Skating And Curling Arena In Strathmore

The Strathmore Branch of the Canadian Legion endorses this Arena as a fitting memorial for those that lost their lives in the wars of the Empire, and in honour of those who served in the same.

A finance committee of the rural and town people has been set up by the Community Council to raise funds for this Memorial project.

Several plans or drawings of buildings are being gathered and will be submitted to the general public after sufficient funds have been collected. A full-size hockey rink, together with four sheets of curling ice, was contemplated at the last general meeting. It is expected that the final plan will embody at least these features.

Every citizen had a share in these wars—
Every citizen should have a hand in the Memorial. By supporting this venture you are expressing an honour to those who have given their lives and served in the forces of the country and you are also providing a sports centre for the physical development of the youth of today and tomorrow.

A personal canvass will be conducted.

THE LUMBER INDUSTRY

Canadian wood was one of the first products shipped abroad and all down thru the history of our land this trade has been of great importance to the Canadian economy. More than one third of the national income from export trade and lumber has been a constant factor in producing that income.

During the war period there was a great demand for lumber overseas. The price was very attractive but the government knowing that all the lumber would for this reason be exported passed a regulation that allowed only a portion of the cut to be exported. In fact, the order made the lumber companies set aside more for domestic use than in pre-war years.

In 1939 a little less than 4 billion feet were produced and 55% was exported. In the last year 5 billion feet was the production and only 42% was allowed to be exported. This meant that the domestic market got 1 1/2 billion feet in 1939 and over 3 billion feet in 1946.

Then the mill owners were not only compelled to sell a large proportion of their product in Canada, but they were forced to sell under a ceiling price that was all thru the war about from 15 dollars to 25 dollars per thousand feet below what would net for that portion they were allowed to export.

The lumbermen had also increased costs as regards wages and materials. They thus claimed that there was a loss of 10 dollars to 12 dollars on every thousand feet they had to sell locally and a profit on the lumber they were allowed to export.

In spite of the fact that the local supply was so much greater each year than in the years before the war the retailers found great difficulty in getting lumber. For this reason some changes were made recently in the selling prices and the controls are gradually being removed.

Newspapers all over the country have whole pages filled with advertisements of houses for sale, but there are really no houses to rent. With the hope of easing this situation the Rental Control officers have in some cases allowed higher rents to be charged but it is likely that as in U.S.A. the Rental Controls will be about the last to go.

FARMER'S COLUMN--

By R. J. M.

Last week we promised to tell you more about the care of your registered grain. Our last paragraph spoke of the time to make your application for field inspection. Don't forget to make your application before June 30. Everybody that has purchased even a small amount of registered seed grain should apply for field inspection. This application should include the number of acres to be inspected and include the official numbers on the tags removed from bags when seeding. The cost is fifteen cents per acre or a minimum charge of $2.50. Even if you wish to retain all you produce from this registered seed, it should be field inspected and if it passes, a Crop Registration Certificate will be used. All registered grain offered for sale must be cleaned to standard leg. No. 1, or Leg. No. 2, and a germination test procured from the Seed Branch in Calgary. If both ideas are carried out the seed will be inspected in the sack the grade compared with the sample submitted and if correct the sacks will be sealed and then ready for sale.

When harvesting registered grain take all necessary precautions to avoid mixing by seeding that all machinery is clean. Don't trust anyone to supervise the harvesting, do it yourself and be assured that your grain remains pure.

At threshing time, discard the first few bushels and thus avoid mixing that might have occurred in the thrasher. Please remember that the care you give your grain will be reflected in the grain grown by someone else the following year.

Be sure to store your grain in a separate bin, avoid open bins where everyone has access.

Early in the fall send a one pound cleaned sample to the Plant Products Division, Dominion Department of Agriculture to establish your seed grade and get a germination test. This service is provided for the small sum of seventy-five cents.

Now after the above work has been done list your produce with your Seed Growers Association for marketing. This should be done early. The association should be in a position to supply sacks.

As a summary, here are some points to be remembered:

1. Plan your program at least one year in advance.
2. Use only clean land, suitably located.
3. Use the highest grade of seed available.
4. Treat with mercury dust.
5. Save tags for future reference.
6. Clean all machinery.
7. Isolate from other crops.
8. Apply for field inspection.
9. Rotate fields frequently.
10. Give attention to harvesting.
11. Associate yourself with the seed growers in your district.

SAYS LOSS OF FERTILITY BY SOIL DRIFTING EXCEEDS THAT BY CROPPING

CHESTER SPEAKS AT FOREMOST FOREMOST — (HNS) — "Loss of fertility from soil drifting is far greater than loss by cropping," declared H. Chester, supervisor of the district substation for Southern Alberta, in an address on "Soil Conservation" given at the monthly dinner meeting of the Foremost and District Board of Trade, held in Foremost on Monday, May 5.

The speaker said "Wheat takes very little fertility out of the soil, moisture being the limiting factor in crop production in Southern Alberta." In dealing with his subject the speaker pointed out that trash cover summer-fallowing to prevent soil drifting was widely used. Experiments in following methods at Lethbridge for the past 10 years showed 22.7 bushels of wheat on plotless fallowing and 21.1 bushels on plowed fallow.

Soil drifting has been successfully controlled by strip farming and trash cover fallowing. The speaker paid a tribute to C. S. Noble and other Southern Alberta farmers for the development of blade cultivators.

Fallowing is done to control weeds and store up moisture but care must be taken to leave the soil protected against wind erosion. The new 2-1-1 weed eradicator are likely to revolutionize fallowing methods since their use may take the place of cultural operations.

Big business often springs from the classified.

Dragnet Extended For E. B. Bottles

Posses organize for search in Alberta rural centres.

The dragnet for E. B. Bottles, alias "Empty," several towns and search extends to Alberta's many towns and villages.

E. B. Bottles, commonly known as Empty Beer Bottles, became the subject of this intensive hunt following disappearance from essential duty in the bottling and brewing industry. Citizens are co-operating in an all-out effort to see that this culprit is brought to justice and returned to work so that the demand for Brewery products can be met.

It is believed that "Empties" may be lying low in basements, closets, attic garages, or other places about the home and for this reason the co-operation of housewives in aiding the search is particularly requested.

CASH REWARD OFFERED

Housewives in cities, towns, and villages are urged to search their premises throughout. In the event of apprehension, Deliveries Limited should be notified at once. They have arranged to take "Empties" into custody - pay 20 cents per dozen cash reward on the spot and provide escort to the nearest bottle depot.

Rural citizens who may come across "Empties" can have him escorted, freight collect to the nearest Deliveries Limited depot, and cash reward will be mailed immediately he is in custody. Depots are located at Camrose, Banff, Calgary, Edmonton, Blairmore, Medicine Hat, Drumheller and Lethbridge. McLennan is nearest depot for Peace River District.

STASSEN SECURES PROMISE OF STALIN FOR CO-OPERATION

WASHINGTON, May 3—Harold E. Stassen, Republican Presidential aspirant, has brought home from Prime Minister Joseph Stalin words of promised co-operation on a wide range of issues—from world atomic control to exchange of students—which continue to divide the United States and Russia.

From the verbatim transcript of the 30-minute exchange which Mr. Stassen had with him at the Kremlin and which Mr. Stassen has now issued in full text, it develops that the Russian Premier offered to his visitor these views:

1. Stalin said he believed it is possible for Russia's Communist economy and America's free-enterprise economy to exist together in the same world in harmony.

2. He held that co-operation between the two systems which was possible could not be realized unless both sides "wish to co-operate," and he told Mr. Stassen that he wanted "to bear testimony to the fact that Russia wants to co-operate."

3. He revealed interest and concern over the possibility of an economic crisis in the United States.
